Palisades Credit Union Announces Next President and CEO

(Pearl River, NY) – Palisades Credit Union is pleased to announce the selection of Anthony Kurdziel as the credit union’s new President and Chief Executive Officer. Kurdziel has served as Chief Operating Officer at Palisades Credit Union since 2012, before serving as the credit union’s Interim CEO since February 2022, following the departure of past President and CEO, Tony Molina.

“On behalf of the Board of Directors, we are excited to welcome Anthony into the President and CEO role,” said Board Chair, Pamela Wiss. “Anthony has successfully led the credit union as the Interim CEO, and by promoting from within, we have ensured continuity of the credit union’s commitment to the financial well-being of our local community.”

Kurdziel has over 25 years of experience in financial leadership, with responsibilities covering a broad spectrum including executive management, member experience, branch operations, and consumer and residential lending. “It is an honor to be named the next President and CEO of Palisades Credit Union,” said Kurdziel. “I appreciate the confidence the Board of Directors has placed in me to lead the credit union into the future. Palisades Credit Union is a trusted financial partner for our community, and I am proud to represent such a strong group of employees dedicated to enriching the lives of our members.”

About Palisades Credit Union
